

"MY . . . doesn't civilisation look good," these two men from Campbell Island, Messrs Michael Criglington (left), of Rangiora, and Warwick Fergusson, of Christchurch, appear to be saying as the U.S.S. Calcaterra tied up at the Kitchener Street wharf this morning. The two have just completed 13 months on the island and Mr Fergusson goes back in two weeks for a further year.

PICKET SHIP DUE TODAY

The weather picket ship, U.S.S. Calcaterra, is expected to berth at Dunedin at 8 a.m. today after Operation "Deepfreeze" duties at 60deg south.

The other picket ship, U.S.S. Thomas J. Gary, left on Tuesday to take over a 21-day patrol.

"MY . . . doesn't civilisation look good," these two men from Campbell Island, Messrs Michael Criglington (left), of Rangiora, and Warwick Fergusson, of Christchurch, appear to be saying as the U.S.S. Calcaterra tied up at the Kitchener Street wharf this morning. The two have just completed 13 months on the island and Mr Fergusson goes back in two weeks for a further year.

Have Radar

Will Travel

U.S.S. CALCATERRA
DESTROYER FORCE
U.S. ATLANTIC FLEET

PICKET SHIP DUE TODAY

The weather picket ship, U.S.S. Calcaterra, is expected to berth at Dunedin at 8 a.m. today after Operation "Deepfreeze" duties at 60deg south.

The other picket ship, U.S.S. Thomas J. Gary, left on Tuesday to take over a 21-day patrol.